++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Another fine and dry day.

Today:
Although cold to start it will soon be turning warm under blue skies and plenty of sunshine. Through the afternoon high cloud moving in from the west will cause the sunshine to become hazier. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
This evening will continue to be fine, however temperatures will quickly be turning chilly again. Not as cold as previous nights, but frost still forming in places. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Saturday:
Fine and dry after a chilly start, it will become brighter during the afternoon as high cloud gradually disperses through the day. Another chilly night with frosts possible. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Fine and dry on Sunday. Cloudier on Monday but staying dry, before some outbreaks of rain on Tuesday. Warm at first, but turning cooler, with a continued overnight frost risk.
